

Second Notice - Consumer Announcement:

Voluntary Recall of Flourish Edible Medical Marijuana Products

January 31, 2017

A nonprofit medical marijuana dispensary located in Coconino County, Arizona is voluntarily recalling several medical marijuana edible products because the products have not been tested for pathogens.

The recalled marijuana edible products include all products that have been processed and packaged in jars and containers for sale to the consumer sold under the product name "Flourish." The recalled Flourish products include:

- Marinara Pasta Sauce ( Marynana Pasta Sauce)
- Hot Sauce (Red Fresno Pepper Hot Sauce)
- Honey Dejon Mustard
- Spicy Ketchup (Sriracha Ketchup)

The Coconino County Public Health Services District is investigating the situation and working with Arizona Department of Health Services Special Licensing to notify dispensaries located throughout Arizona where the potentially contaminated products were distributed or sold. Flourish products that have been recalled have been distributed to the following medical marijuana dispensaries in Arizona:
